SLSWA would like to offer the Certificate IV Training units to those members of Surf Life Saving who wish to further their Surf career into training others in the skill that they have now acquired. This course is essential to those that are contemplating on assisting their club in training any surf skill. All sessions must be attended and then evidence of participating in training will need to be gathered.

Course One – venue to be determined

6:00pm to 9.00pm Wednesday 1st October 2008 (3 hours)
9.00am to Finish Saturday 4th October 2008 (approx 8 hours)

Course Two - venue to be determined

6.00pm to 9.00pm Monday 17th November 2008 (3hours)
9.00am to Finish Saturday 22th November 2008 (approx 8 hours)

The venue will be determined by the response. The venue will be at a metropolitan club and this will be notified when candidate numbers are known. The number of candidates will be restricted to 20 per class and a minimum of 8 will be required to proceed. Candidate email addresses will be required on nomination.

This course will incur a cost of $50.00 to cover course materials and clubs will be invoiced on candidate nominations. Commercially this course would be valued in excess of $500.00.

For any further questions or if Clubs or candidates are unsure of the requirements please contact John King on 9243 9444 or by email at jking@mybeach.com.au
