

HEALTH AND SAFETY POLICY

Adopted by the SLSWA Board of Directors 27 April 2005

Surf Life Saving Western Australia is committed to the safety, health and well-being of its members, employees, volunteers, visitors and the community in general.

We conduct all business activities in a safe and responsible manner, with a commitment to continual improvement of our health and safety practices. Our commitment to establish measurable occupational health and safety objectives and targets ensures a proactive approach aimed at eliminating work place injuries and illnesses.

Surf Life Saving Western Australia will not compromise health and safety, and will strive not only to satisfy, but to exceed, the requirements of all laws and regulations applicable to workplace health and safety, consistent with our role of saving lives.

We are committed to open communication, consultation and the involvement of managers, employees, members and the community in occupational health and safety issues.

We provide leadership and guidance on best practice health and safety management, leading by example to promote a culture of safety throughout Western Australian Surf Lifesaving Clubs.

This policy applies to all personnel, staff, Officers, visitors and contractors under Surf Life Saving Western Australia's control.
